Burroughs, et al (Patent)

On June 18, 1999 the Board of Patent Appeals & Interferences rendered its decision on judgment. To date this Office has not been notified of an appeal having been taken from the Board's decision. If contrary to the indication in the Office records, an appeal has been filed, a notice to that effect should be filed in this interference within ten (10) days from the present communication, giving the jurisdiction, title, and number of the action. Such response should be directed to the Board of Patent Appeals & Interferences. In the absence of a response, it will be assumed that no appeal has been taken and the files herein will be returned to the examining groups.
